Alabama Baptist news

"Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them, otherwise ye have no reward of your father which is in heaven." Matthew 6:1

We welcome our pastor back, Rev. Elliott, he has been on vacation, now he is back at his post. Prayer service was led by Deacon James Moore and Deacon Willie Ward. Pulpit guest was Bro. John Edwards.

Scriptures were read by pastor Elliott; 8 Chap. St. Matthew 19-34 verse. Prayer offered by Rev. Edwards. Rev. Elliott's sermon was taken from 8 Chap. St. Matthew and 18 verse. Theme: "Crossing Over". It was a wonderful sermon.

We are praying for Mrs. Elliott and the sick and shut in everywhere.

Alice Moore is doing very well and also baby Jennifer Walker. Both of them have been in the hospital. We thank all visitors for coming out to help us in our services, the Deacons from Mt. Lyle, White Oak Grove and Roanoke Baptist Church.

On Nov. 15 at 7 p.m. there will be a music program for Sunday school at Alabama, consisting of Holiness Singers and Silvertone Gospel Singers of Prospect, Va., and Gospel Quintet, of Pamplin, Va.

Thanksgiving night at 7:00 there will be a prayer service and Rev. Wyatt Venable will preach.

Deacon William Venable preached his trial sermon at White Oak Grove Baptist Sunday night. A large crowd turned out to the service and music was rendered by the Holiness Singers and Mrs. Joyce Walker and Mrs. Mary Bailey.

Rev. Wyatt Venable was in charge of devotions. Rev. Walter Singletary gave the prayer, scripture was given by Rev. Mc. Johnson; II Timothy 4-8 verse. Dedication prayer was offered by Rev. H. O. Flood, special song, Rev. Curtis Elliott, "Won't Have To Cry No More", Rev. John Edwards was present also, Rev. William Venable offered encouraging words. Rev. William Venable preached a splendid sermon. It was wonderful. Scripture was taken from Matthew 26 21-22; II Cor. 13-5 verse. Subject "Look and Examine Yourself." Donations were good. Rev. Venable thanked each and everyone for coming out. M.C. pastor Hendericks. See you next time!

BLACK AMERICA - - already struggling with the biggest killer, hypertension - - is facing yet another disease gaining strength in its ranks. Cancer is striking and killing blacks at the highest rate recorded in U.S. medical history. The cancer rate among Black Americans has risen by eight percent in the last 25 years. Harrison West, Jr., bus driver and custodian for the Appomattox County School System, (pictured above) has been smoking for approximately 25 years. West, who has pledged to give up smoking on November 20, The Great American Smokeout Day has this to say: "I would like for all young people, black and white alike, to think twice before beginning the smoking habit. It is hard to quite once you have gotten in the habit." West urges other Appomattox citizens to 'Take The Pledge' . . . give up smoking for one day, or maybe even longer!

St. Luke news

On Sunday, Oct. 26 at 3:00 p.m. the annual woman's day program was an inspiring event. Mrs. Helene Hunter was M.C. and carried out the program with much credit to the women and herself. The guest speaker was Mrs. Mary O. Johnson who spoke about the foolish and wise virgins. Subject - Do You Have Any Oil? This was very awakening to the group and inspiring. The New Horizon Choir of Lynchburg gave the music and was so enjoyable.

The offering was very good, $583.10 was reported. Mrs. Sadie Scott is president for this woman's circle. On Nov. 2 at 11:00 a.m. the regular preaching services was well attended. At short notice the pastor Rev. McLaughlin was entered into the hospital for treatment and Rev. Jones was in charge of the preaching service at St. Luke Baptist Church.

Rev. Jones used as his subject, The Lights Have Gone Out In The Church. St. John first chapter, beginning at the first verse. This was well taken and uplifting. The Sr. Choir gave the music. The offering was very good. A very special event was well taken by the group. The First St. Luke Gospel Chorus composed of the young people of the church gave two selections. The music was given by a young man, Mr. Yville, who plays the guitar nicely. All who were there enjoyed it.

After the service at St. Luke many of the St. Luke members went to Evergreen Baptist Church to attend their homecoming. Rev. Otty was the guest speaker for the m. service. He gave a great message. The Mt. Calvary Choir gave soul stirring music which was great. The different captains made good reports of finance collected for the occasion.

Mrs. Teressa Baker of Philadelphia, Pa. and her daugher were callers in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Canada while visiting their aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Franklin of Pamplin, Va., who has been quite ill. We do hope for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. Gegory Canada who graduated from Norfolk State as a certified accountant and now working at Newark, Del. was a week-end visitor of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Saumel Canada also his grandmother, Mrs. Louise Canada.

While on his trip from Texas he stopped in Richmond to visit his two brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Canada.

Mrs. Thelma Bradley, a member of St. Luke Church is still on the sick list in the hospital.

All senior citizens are asked to please come to St. Luke Church Nov. 10 and meet with the senior citizens there at a work meeting and listen to a talk on nutrition by ladies from the Center at Rustburg. Time 10:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.
